

Jonathan E. Missner

Managing Partner

T: 202.661.0956

jmissner@steinmitchell.com

Jonathan E. Missner is the Managing Partner of Stein Mitchell Beato & Missner LLP. He is also Chair of the firm's Global Practices and Corporate Strategy Groups. Mr. Missner has been an Adjunct Professor of Law at Georgetown University Law Center since 2000.

Mr. Missner helps guide clients who face high-impact legal and operational challenges. With his background leading businesses on a global platform, he works with clients on their most complex matters, including regulatory and policy issues, venture capital and emerging companies, growth, and corporate governance.

As Chair of the Corporate Strategy Group, Mr. Missner focuses his practice on evaluating litigation risks and benefits, controlling costs, advising growing businesses, and creating value-driven partnerships. As Chair of the Global Practices Group, Mr. Missner leads the firm's effort to offer its services in more areas and markets around the world. He also advises clients who seek to grow and thrive in a global environment. Mr. Missner has a proven track record of maintaining and creating synergistic partnerships based on his worldwide relationships.

Mr. Missner represents and advises clients in matters related to tax, securities, and health care laws, including the resolution of a $2.6 billion civil and criminal investigation against Credit Suisse for conspiring to aid and assist taxpayers in filing false returns.

Prior to joining Stein Mitchell Beato & Missner LLP, Mr. Missner spent more than a decade at the American Israel Public Affairs Committee ("AIPAC"), most recently as Managing Director, National Affairs. He led AIPAC's strategic planning, grew and managed its network of national offices, and worked closely with its Board of Directors. Among AIPAC's many successes during his tenure, revenues tripled under Mr. Missner's direct leadership.

Prior to joining AIPAC, Mr. Missner led two high-growth businesses in the health care field. With Phillips Health, he led the company through substantial growth and served as in-house counsel for all regulatory matters. He co-founded AmericasDoctor.com and developed the company's marketing and business development plan, strategic growth, funding, and affiliate programs. In less than two years, he helped the company establish a sustainable base of revenue and execute a strategic exit.

Jonathan E. Missner

Mr. Missner holds a J.D. from Georgetown, an M.B.A. from the George Washington University and a B.A. from Johns Hopkins University. He is an avid tennis player, an active volunteer in his community, and the father of three children.

Experience

- Affinity Gaming v. Trustwave (D. Nev.): Represented Affinity Gaming, a U.S. casino company in a lawsuit against Trustwave, the data security company Affinity Gaming hired to investigate and help remediate a data breach; Affinity Gaming alleged that Trustwave misrepresented its investigation and the security of Affinity Gaming's data. The matter settled and received considerable press coverage from a wide range of legal, business, and technology media.
- State Oil Company of Azerbaijan Republic (SOCAR): Represented SOCAR before the House Ethics Committee and the Office of Congressional Ethics. This matter was covered on the front page of The Washington Post and other international publications. The investigation was closed.
- Represented Life Alert, founder of the medical alert industry, in an enforcement action before the FTC to stop the dangerous and illegal tactics of a competitor, which negatively affected the industry.
- Legarda et al. v. Celerion, Inc., CV2016-009119 (Ariz. Super. Ct. Maricopa Cty.): Counsel for Advarra Inc. in connection with its review and approval of an FDA-regulated clinical drug study. Secured a dismissal of all claims against Advarra at summary judgment following extensive briefing and lengthy oral argument. Subsequently secured denials of various motions brought by the plaintiff, including motions for reconsideration and for leave to amend the complaint to add new claims.
- Bausch Health US, LLC v. Virtus Pharmaceuticals OPCO II, LLC: Counsel for Virtus Pharmaceuticals in suit brought by competitor involving Lanham Act and antitrust claims. Secured favorable settlement for client.
- Virtus Pharmaceuticals, LLC v. Method Pharmaceuticals, LLC (Florida state court): Counsel for Virtus Pharmaceuticals in a suit alleging theft of trade secrets, unfair trade practices, breach of fiduciary duty, tortious interference, and breach of contract claims against a competitor as well as former Virtus employees. Secured favorable settlement for our client.
- Outside litigation general counsel for Linden Capital, a leading healthcare private equity firm, advising the firm and its portfolio companies with respect to all litigation matters, including False Claims Act, Lanham Act, antitrust, trade secrets, employment, and commercial contract and business tort disputes.
- UMG Recordings, Inc., et al. v. Grande Communications Networks, LLC (Western District of Texas): Counsel for leading music recording companies in large-scale copyright infringement suit against an internet service provider. Obtained summary judgment against ISP's safe harbor defense under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, a ruling cited in numerous copyright cases and authorities. Case is set for trial.

Jonathan E. Missner

- UMG Recordings, Inc., et al v. RCN Telecom Services, LLC (District of New Jersey): Counsel for leading music recording companies in large-scale copyright infringement suit against the sixth largest internet service provider in the country.
- Protégé Biomedical, LLC v. Z-Medica, LLC (District of Minnesota): Counsel for Defendant Z-Medica, a Linden portfolio company, in ongoing case alleging misappropriation of trade secrets.
- Henkin et al. v. Iran et. al. (District of the District of Columbia): Ongoing Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act litigation on behalf of the Henkin family against Syria, Iran, and Iranian political subdivisions and agencies or instrumentalities for providing support to the foreign terrorist organization Hamas, who brutally murdered Eitam Henkin (a U.S. citizen) and his wife, Naama, in front of their four minor children.
- Henkin et al. v. Kuveyt Türk Katılım Bankası (Eastern District of New York): Ongoing Anti-Terrorism Act litigation on behalf of the Henkin family against Turkish Bank for aiding and abetting Hamas, who committed the attack against the Henkin family.
- Anonymous Whistleblower vs. Credit Suisse AG: Successful representation of an anonymous whistleblower that exposed a $2.8 billion hidden civil and criminal tax and securities fraud and who obtained significant rewards under IRS and SEC whistleblower programs. "In 2014, Credit Suisse AG pleaded guilty to a massive conspiracy to aid, assist and conceal taxpayers filing false income tax returns related to hidden foreign bank accounts, and engaging in cross-border brokerage and investment advisory services without registering with the SEC. As part of the plea agreement, Credit Suisse acknowledged that it operated an illegal cross-border banking business for decades, and that the bank knowingly and willfully aided and assisted clients in opening and maintaining undeclared accounts. In addition, Credit Suisse paid $196 million to the SEC for violating federal securities laws by providing cross-border brokerage and investment advisory services without registering with the SEC. As part of the settlement, Credit Suisse agreed to identify hidden, recalcitrant accounts and provide testimony and information necessary to establish the location of documents and evidence related to the hidden accounts." See <https://www.justice.gov/opa/pr/credit-suisse-sentenced-conspiracy-help-us-taxpayers-hide-offshore-accounts-internal-revenue>

News

Hacked Casino Sues Cybersecurity Firm

Jonathan E. Missner and Robert B. Gilmore represent Affinity Gaming in a lawsuit against Trustwave.
Originally Published in The Hill

Stein Mitchell Announces Name Change and Welcomes Two New Attorneys
Press Release

Jonathan E. Missner

Jonathan Missner Joins Stein Mitchell Muse Cipollone & Beato LLP
Missner will chair the Firm's new Global Practices and Corporate Strategy Groups and serve as
Managing Partner
Press Release

Practice Areas

Commercial Litigation

Corporate Strategy

Financial Institutions

Global Practices

Government & Congressional Investigations

Healthcare

Regulatory and Government Affairs

White Collar Criminal Defense

Education

Georgetown University Law Center, J.D.

The George Washington University, M.B.A.

Johns Hopkins University, B.A.

Admissions

District of Columbia

Maryland

Illinois