Susie Kim has substantial experience in complex commercial litigation for clients across diverse contexts, including insurance, intellectual property, distributorship, and financial services disputes.

Before joining Stein Mitchell, Susie was a litigation associate at Arent Fox LLP from 2017 to 2020, where she represented corporations and individuals before state and federal courts and at arbitrations and mediations. She managed discovery and fact development on behalf of large consumer goods and insurance companies, negotiated settlements of claims arising out of contract disputes, and drafted briefs in a wide range of matters. She also participated in international arbitrations on behalf of distributors and shareholders.

Prior to joining Arent Fox, Susie was a litigation associate at Satterlee Stephens LLP from 2013 to 2017, where she practiced in commercial disputes on behalf of a securities rating agency, financial institutions, media companies, and insurance companies.
