

Four Stein Mitchell Muse Cipollone & Beato LLP Attorneys Named to Elite List of “Best Lawyers” by WASHINGTONIAN Magazine

Press Release

January 19, 2014

Four Stein Mitchell Muse Cipollone & Beato attorneys have been named to the Washingtonian Magazine's 2013-2014 “Best Lawyers” list. Derived in part from survey responses of members of the American Bar Association, the list identifies the elite one percent of the “Stars of the Bar” in Washington compiled from more than 80,000 attorneys in different practice areas.

Andrew M. Beato, chair of the False Claims Act and Whistleblower Practice Group at Stein Mitchell Muse Cipollone & Beato LLP is named a 2013 Best Lawyer for his record of achievement representing whistleblower clients. In 2013, Mr. Beato secured the largest generic drug whistleblower settlement in history wherein India's largest generic drug maker, Ranbaxy, paid $500 million to settle allegations of systemic generic drug manufacturing fraud.

Gerard E. Mitchell, Bob F. Muse, Richard A. Bussey have been selected as Washington's Best Lawyers in Personal Injury. The Stein Mitchell Muse Cipollone & Beato Medical Malpractice & Serious Personal Injury Practice has an outstanding track record of representing clients seriously hurt by the negligence of others.

Stein Mitchell Muse Cipollone & Beato LLP is a premier nationally-recognized litigation firm based in Washington, DC serving businesses and individuals throughout the United States and abroad. The firm's practices focus on commercial litigation, antitrust & trade regulation, congressional investigations, white collar criminal defense, False Claims Act & whistleblower, and medical malpractice & serious personal injury.